Including the replies to the Sellers Property Information Form, Sellers Leasehold Information Form, or Fixtures and Fitting Form and whether before or after the date hereof.

2. In consideration of the introduction by the Agent to the vendor of a purchaser for the property at the Price or any other price acceptable to the Vendor the Vendor will pay the Agent Commission (“the Commission”) at the Commission Rate upon the Price (plus VAT if applicable) provided such purchaser is ready willing and able to exchange a contract for the purchase of the property (whether conditionally or otherwise) or actually proceeds to exchange contracts for the purchase of the property (whether conditionally or otherwise). The Vendor will remain liable for payment of such Commission even if the Vendor withdraws from the sale Property provided that the purchaser was ready willing and able to exchange a contract for the purchaser of the property (whether conditionally or otherwise). Commission is payable even if the purchaser was not introduced by the Agent but was introduced by another agent or person or the Vendor personally.
3. Accounts unpaid after 7 days from the due date shall carry interest at 5% per annum above the base rate for Barclays Bank Plc from time to time calculated upon a daily basis.
4. For the purposes of condition 2 above a purchaser shall be treated as having been introduced by the Agent if actually introduced to the Vendor by the Agent within the Agency Period notwithstanding that the purchaser may proceed to exchange of contracts after the Agency Period.
5. In the event of the Vendor accepting a property in part-exchange the Commission shall be based upon the Price for the higher priced property.
6. The Vendor shall during the Agency Period allow the Agent to erect a “For Sale” board at the Property and permit prospective purchasers to view the property upon reasonable notice by appointment.
7. The Agent reserves the right to provide financial services to prospective purchasers for the property upon insurance or mortgage related matters, and, should a prospective purchaser have a property to sell, to offer to assist them in the sale of that property.
8. The Vendors hereby irrevocably instruct their solicitors to pay the Commission out of the net sale proceeds from the Property upon completion of the sale thereof. Entitlement to payment of Commission arises upon exchange of contracts or, in the event of the vendor withdrawing from the sale, at the time of such withdrawal provided the purchaser introduced by the agent was ready willing and able to exchange a contract for the purchase of the Property (whereby conditionally or otherwise).

11. In the event that a Vendor is unable to pay for the EPC, Regent estates can offer this service, on the understanding that should the Vendor not sell or change his/her mind, or that they may express an interest to market the property through an alternative Estate agent, then they would be liable to reimburse Regent Estates for the cost of the EPC. Failure to do so will result in legal action being taken against the Vendor/s.
